California's History Is Fair Theme

The Monterey County Fair, which this year will be held Aug. 6 through 10, has found California's history so complex that it was necessary to break it into two parts in order to use it as the theme of the fair.

The fair's theme is keyed to the two-year observation of California's bicentennial celebration.

This year the fair will emphasize the pre-European phase of California history, calling on myth, legend and earliest written records to spin the thread from which exhibitors will draw their designs.

No division does it better than the floriculture department, where the many classes of competition underscore the myriad aspects of California's history, geography and climate.

The 1969 premium book, which came off the presses this week and has already been mailed to exhibitors of past fairs, divides the floral displays into classes depicting the central valley, the peninsula, San Francisco, the central coast, the high country, the southland and the gold country.

Sections in these classes call for the creation of displays suggesting such varied facets of Californiana as Mexicala, Pigeon Point, billowing fog, rainbow bridge, the Kern plateau, Huntington Park Art Gallery, Los Angeles, and many more.

The premium book offers 5,625 cash rewards to exhibitors in the hundreds of classes for flowers, vegetatables, livestock, kitchen products, needlework and junior exhibits.

The premium book also lists deadlines for entering exhibits in each of the fair's divisions and explains to new exhibitors the rules of fair competition. A copy of the book may be picked up at the administration building at the fairgrounds — or interested exhibitors may phone that office at 372-5863 and ask that a premium book be mailed to them.

First deadline for the 1969 fair is for junior livestock exhibitors, who must have their entry forms returned to the Monterey County Fairgrounds by 5 p.m. on July 1. This deadline applies to all 4-H and FFA exhibitors, as well as to all other exhibitors under 21 years of age.

Entry blanks may be mailed to the fair office, or may be delivered to the administration building.

Second Step In Sunset Cafe To Air June 25

By Gunnar Norberg

On Wednesday, June 25, the Carmel Planning Commission is scheduled to decide whether or not to approve a use permit for a commercial restaurant at the city-owned Sunset Center.

The use-permit for the restaurant is being sought by Tom King, who operates a restaurant on the other side of Monterey Bay in Capitola. But neither King, nor any representative of his, was present in City Hall yesterday afternoon when the Planning Commission took the King application under consideration.

Instead, the King request was presented by Cole Weston, the city's Sunset Center manager, who appeared on behalf of the city's Cultural Commission which took the initial step to approve the restaurant request at its May meeting.

If the Planning Commis-

Giant Pacific
You have come a long way.
The white gulls have greeted you.
As you near the end of your journey
Your white foam sprays in beauty
Over the shore line rocks
But your strength is gone.
You are like a lamb
As you come to rest for all eternity
On the hospitable shores of Carmel.

Mission For Bob Wood

The apparent conservative "backlash" that seems to be sweeping the nation has sent Republican Bob Wood, a farmer from Monterey South County to the California State Assemly.

He will be sworn into his new job early next week, and while he will probably have a great deal of groping around to do in order to learn his new duties, we have one thing we wish he would look into right away, or at least as soon as he has discovered where his office is.

We would like him to check into the death of AB5.

In an editorial in our April 10 issue, we viewed sion approves the restaurant request at its meeting next Wednesday afternoon — and such an eventuality seemed a likely one at yesterday's restaurant hearing — the third, and final, step would occur when, and if, the City Council were to grant the five-year lease (with an option to renew the lease for a similar period) which is implied by the King application.

Starting rental for the proposed restaurant is a modest $100 per month for winter months, or $150 at other times.

What is to be included in the restaurant use is Room No. 5 along with half the north patio at Sunset and the remote below-stairs kitchen there. Basic square footage involved is said to be 1290 square feet—a size probably more than doubled when patio-and-kitchen areas are included with Room No. 5.

During the hearing on the restaurant proposal, Leslie Gross posed a series of questions concerning the possible revenue to be derived from the Sunset restaurant, both by the City and by the tenant. For example, if rental were to be computed at a 30 cents-per-square foot basis, monthly rental on just the basic restaurant premises should be not either $100 or $150 a month, but instead $387 a month.

According to a February, 1967 memorandum by City Attorney William Burleigh to the city's then Sunset Commission, Burleigh said ". . . You may rent to a purely commercial use, such as a restaurant concession, providing you charge rental fees at fair market value, for example 30-50 cents a square foot. . . ."

Opposition to the rezoning of a lot at the northwest corner of Camino Real and 8th, for use as a parking lot by La Playa Hotel owner, "Bud" Allen, was expressed by members of an interested City Hall audience. The Commission deferred action on this rezoning request until next Wednesday, when the Commission's planning and conservation committee —composed of Commissioners Fred Keeble and Ted Fehring—will present a report on the matter.

Following another public hearing—this one on a request to allow construction nearer the front line of a residential property than the building code provides—the Commission decided to defer further consideration until 3:30 Wednesday afternoon, July 16, when the Commission will convene at the site —the south side of Ocean Avenue between Forest and Hatton roads. The applicant is Donn Schroder.

The outdoor display of merchandise by various business establishments occupied Planning Commission members for a considerable period of time late yesterday afternoon.

The problems presented by such displays have come periodically before city fathers through the years. While city ordinances forbid such displays, long usage has made them difficult to terminate. In fact, some have usually been thought to be fully acceptable — such as newspaper racks—though no legal provision has specifically been made to accommodate them.

After hearing from Melbourne Campbell, owner of the Straw Shop, and Mervin Sutton who operates the Nielsen Market, the Commission referred the outdoor display question to its design review committee for a possible legislative solution.

Commissioner Dorothy von Meier brought to the Commission's attention the tree dedication to the memory of the late Floyd Adams, which has been under consideration for some time by the Commission. The date for the tentative dedication ceremo- Wednesday, July 23.

Fitness Classes Continue

The physical fitness and conditioning classes will continue during the summer vacation period at the Middle School gymnasium.

The classes meet on Tuesday and Thursday evenings under the direction of Kenneth Matthew, and are part of the Carmel City Recreation Program.

Klaumann Attends FBI Associates Meet; New Left Discussion Topic

Carmel Police Chief Clyde Klaumann and Mrs. Klaumann attended the annual conference of the FBI National Academy Associates June 8 through 11 in San Diego.

Members attending heard specialists in the field of federal and local law enforcement agencies, religion, education and the military.

The general theme as expressed in a letter received by the group, written by FBI chief J. Edgar Hoover, was "Law enforcement throughout the United States and its concern with problems of a type and on a scale never before encountered. The role o fthe new left' in such problems as well as that of the overzealous youth who mistakes license for liberty, cannot be overlooked. . . ."

According to Klaumann, the outstanding problems to be overcome are communistic influences on the campus that pit race against race, spread the use of narcotics and attempt the breakdown of our moral standards.

Chief Klaumann is the past president of the FBI National Academy Associates, having turned the gavel over to Wayne Bornhoft, Fullerton Chief of Police, at the conference.

For his service as president of the law enforcement group for the past year and for several outstanding contributions to law enforcement, Klaumann was presented several attractive commemorative plaques in San Diego.

Bach and Mozart On Third Concert

Some of the greatest music of Bach and Mozart will be offered at the third evening concert of this year's Carmel Bach Festival, Monday, July 21 at 8:30 in Sunset Auditorium.

The program will open with Bach's "Brandenburg Concerto No. 1 in F Major," last heard on a Festival program in 1966.

It is the first, rather than the last of the Brandenburg Concertos, that offers a summary of procedures used in the other five. Miss Eudice Shapiro, well-known professor of violin at the University of Southern California and the Aspen Festival, will be soloist in Mozart's "Concerto for Violin in A Major, K.219."

This exuberant concerto treats the solo instrument almost as if it were a human voice in a spectacular operatic aria and incorporates in its finale a charming episode in the then-popular "Turkish" style.

J. S. Bach's "Trauer-Ode," an expansive work scored for four soloists, chorus and orchestra, will feature singers Mary Esther Nicola and Thomas Paul, both familiar to Festival audiences, and Leo Goeke and Joanne Simon making their first appearances on Festival programs this year.

Information concerning the Festival concerts and recitals may be obtained at the Bach Festival office, Room 3, Sunset Cultural Center or by writing to Box 503, Carmel and enclosing a stamped self-addressed envelope.

with alarm and at considerable length the provision of AB272, which, on July 1, 1971, will remove the necessity of voter approval for tax overrides sought by local school boards.

We indicate the result would be complete fiscal disaster for California property owners.

Now we are viewing with alarm again, prompted by an article in the June 16 edition of the U.S. News and World Report, which says that a bill in the State Assembly, AB5, which would have eliminated that terrifying clause, has been killed by an assembly subcommittee.

Now, Mr. Wood, please find out why, when the taxpayers in this country are on the verge of a complete revolt against an unendurable tax burden, the Legislature of the State of California is going to allow a law to become effective that would allow unlimited taxation by local school boards.

In every other area of taxation, the citizen is helpless, and taking away this one privilege he has to regulate his taxes might be such a massive frustration as to precipitate a taxpayer revolt.

You could make yourself quite a hero, Mr. Wood, by doing something to nullify that one little nine-line clause in AB272 that is causing us to view with such alarm.

Carmel Teacher In Migrant Program

Mrs. Phyllis Davies of Carmel is participating in this summer's California Migrant Teacher Institute, according to Monterey County Schools Superintendent Ed Coffin.

The Migrant Teacher Institute includes a two-week session at San Jose State College, six weeks teaching in a local summer school program with migrant students and a one-week evaluation session at San Jose State.

During the two-week training session, participants will work with members of the California Migrant Teacher Assistants Mini-Corps, receive instruction in educational methods best suited to migrant student special requirements and share experiences in working with migrant students.

Local teachers in the MTI program will be working in Salinas City School District, Alisal Union School District and Pajaro Valley Unified School District summer schools.

RED CROSS SPEAKER— Wallace Jamie of Los Angeles, director of public relations for the Carnation Company, will be the speaker at the annual meeting of the Carmel Chapter the American Red Cross on June 22. See story, page B.

THE WINNER — Bob Wood, newly elected State Assemblyman from Monterey County, was the speaker at the Carmel Rotary Club during its luncheon meeting last Wednesday at the La Playa Hotel. Wood, who defeated four other candidates for the seat left vacant by the tragic death of Alan Pattee, eschewed politics for the day and talked of the history and heritage of the West Coast and the Monterey Peninsula. Local architect Steve Sassoon introduced the new assemblyman.

Pebble Beach Tennis Bash Over 4th

Cornwall Jackson, Hollywood, president of the Los Angeles Tennis Club, and noted radio and television producer, has been named honorary chairman of this year's Pebble Beach Celebrity Tennis Festival.

The July 4-5-6 event pits luminaries from the entertainment and communications world in a three day round-robin event at Del Monte Lodge's Beach and Tennis Club fast by the 17-Mile Drive.

Jackson, co-owner of Paisano Productions, producers of the Perry Mason series, heads a list of film and television stars who are coming.

Efrem Zimbalist, Jr., cowinner of last year's doubles championship, will return to defend his title, as will Jim Brown, the singles winner.

The Celebrity Tennis Festival is part of a big July 4th celebration at Pebble Beach, which includes the traditional fireworks and barbeque at the Beach and Tennis Club, and a Saturday evening (July 5th) party honoring players and guests.

A pre-tournament cocktail party, hosted by Del Monte Properties Company President, Aime Michaud, will launch the weekend's festivities.

Sierra Club Cruises To Channel Islands

Due to popular demand, the Sierra Club is extending its current series of spring cruises to the Channel Islands aboard the schooner "Swift."

The last four cruises of the season will take place on June 21, 22, 28 and 29.

Destination of the 90-foot sailing ship will be the Painted Cave of Santa Cruz Island which can be entered only from the sea. The largest sea cave of the Channel Islands, Painted Cave extends more than 500 feet under the island from an entrance 70 feet high.

The walls of the cave are stained with copper sulphate and oxide of iron. The inner shore is frequented by California sea lions whose barking echoes hollowly throughout the cavern. Sea birds nest on the high cliffs.

The "Swift" was built in Ipswich, Mass. and is based largely on the design of the Baltimore Clipper, "Swift," an American privateer of the 18th Century.

The public is invited to join club members on the one-day cruises which leave the Santa Barbara public dock at 8 a.m. and return at 5 p.m. Minimum age is ten years.

Reservations and further information may be obtained from Mrs. E. A. Parkinson, 568 Beaumont Way, Goleta, Calif. 93017. Telephone (805) 967-9371.

MPMA Watercolor Workshops In July

The Monterey Peninsula Museum of Art is announcing a speical summer watercolor workshop to be held during the third week of July.

Registrations are now being taken for this 5-day series, to be given at Carmel High School from July 21 through 25 from 9:30 to 12:30 daily.

Classes will be limited to 20 students, and will be open to all interested painters, beginners through advanced.

The instructor will be Albert Cunningham, San Francisco painter, art teacher and jazz musician.

The recipient of many prizes and awards, he has exhibited at the DeYoung and San Francisco Museums, Oakland Art Museum, and Crocker Museum in Sacramento. Active in many art organizations, he is president of San Francisco Artists Cooperative, and is on the board of the Society of Western Artists and Artist's Equity.

The Pacific-plying ships of the State Steamship Co. are floating Cunningham galleries. 140 of his watercolors are hung on the "California," "Oregon," "Washington," and "Hawaii," 35 per ship, each depicting that state's landmarks.

He is currently completing another series for their newest vessel.

Among his other commissions were 13 paintings for the Zellerbach Calendar in 1963, a Ford Times Award in 1964, and a series for Humble Oil Co. for their Spring '69 publication.

Though he has painted this area many times, this will be Cunningham's first teaching assignment in Carmel.

To register for the watercolor workshop, or for further information, please call the museum, 624-2918, or workshop chairman Linda Simpson, 624-4393.

The museum also announces that there are still a few openings in the oil painting workshop to be conducted by George DeGroat, former well-known local artist now on the staff of Otis Art Institute in Los Angeles.

Those interested in registering for this August 18, 19, 21, 22 series may make reservations by calling the museum or Mrs. Simpson.

These classes will be held at Sunset Center with 6 hours of instruction daily.

Cosmos Club Hears Navy Intelligence Expert Bowers

The Cosmos Club held its regular monthly Tuesday lunch meeting at the Monterey Elks Club.

Lieutenant Commander William Smith introduced Navy Intelligence Specialist, Lieutenant Commander Richard Bowers, who talked to the club members about the "Roll of Intelligence Officers in The Navy."

In essence, Bowers said that most intelligence personnel are engaged in unglamorous work such as file clerks, secretaries, typists, computer programming and supervision, the main difference from civilian jobs being that each employee goes through a rigid investigation of their ability to handle classifeid military information.

All of the employees must constantly be sensitive to clues which might indicate danger to our country.

All such information can be added up to protect our nation from attack and disruption of public services and morale.

'CBA-lert' Report Reveals Success Of Merchant-Police Cooperation

In a special report to the executive committee of the Carmel Business Association on June 5, Captain William Ellis of the Carmel Police Department described the effectiveness of the newly instituted "CBA-lert" program in protecting merchants from fraud.

Portions of the accomplishment report follow:

The Carmel Business Association, in cooperation with the Carmel Police Department, initiated a merchant telephone warning system in August of 1968 which is now well known by the code name "C. B. A-LERT." The system was designed to protect merchants against being victimized by fraud of any kind.

The operation of the warning system is simple and effective.

Only the police department has authority to initiate an alert and only when there are reasonable grounds to believe a crime has been committed or is about to be committed against one or more local merchants. When such valid information is received, police phone five key members of the system, giving each a brief description of suspects, type of fictitious documents being passed, name of stolen credit card used, etc., and requesting a C. B. A-LERT be activated. This starts a chain reaction of calls to 25 secondary key members who in turn spread the alert to other merchants throughout the business district. Each member merchant is responsible for relaying the alert to five others. The entire call-up can be accomplished within twenty minutes.

To date the C. B. A-LERT has been put in operation five times involving crimes of fictitious checks, stolen credit cards and stolen Postal Money Orders.

On two occasions through the use of the system and information received from merchants, suspects were subsequently apprehended after defrauding some 20 businesses with bogus checks totaling $858.96.

In each case full restitution was made resulting in no losses to merchants.

On two other occasions alerts were activated when it was discovered that suspects were obtaining several hundreds of dollars worth of merchandise at various shops with stolen credit cards. One case resulted in police capturing two suspects after a high-speed chase through the business district, who were in possession of a stolen vehicle and numerous stolen credit cards. In both cases full recovery of losses was made by merchants victimized.

One most recent case involved two suspects cashing stolen and forged Postal Money Orders.

Within minutes after the alert calls were started, a complete description of the suspects and the fictitious names being used were obtained from merchants. Police were also able to obtain several of the forged money orders before they reached bank deposits.

One area Postal Inspector praised the C. B. A-LERT system and the merchants for their quick response by stating, "This is the first time we have had such an adequate description of the responsibles and the first time such a fresh lead to their identity has been available."

Postal authorities anticipate an early arrest in this matter resulting from the merchant and police cooperation.

After being in operation for less than a year this merchant's warning system has proven itself 100% effective in four out of five cases. Another example of how the public and police — working together — can collectively aid in the program of crime prevention.

Poetry Corner

"Be My Guest"

Thc tall pines whispered it first
Audaciously, lazily simply true
Dancing their ragged tops on the horizon
Forest green petticoat under sky of blue

The rugged cypress gave warm welcome
Dripping lacy lichen still wet from rainy day
Crystal teardrops of joy that you are now here
"We were here first" they seem to say
"But you're very welcome too"

A buck, his doe and their little one
Tautly stretching quietness together
Then leaping off by an old tree
Over wild purple iris,
Fallen grey logs and multicoloured leaves
Leaving the glade to his guests
To a curious grateful you and me

Shaft of heavenly sunshine, starkly narrow
Through green forest, dark as night
Straight as a sunbeam, multiplied by a thousand sunbeams
Gaily lighting bronze and russet and silver and gold
Throwing rainbows of prisms of light

The patterns of tree, of leaf, of flower
So everlasting true
Give peace and rest and make it home
Dear traveller, it's here for you

Oh, who's my host
Oh, whom do I thank
When this sojourn is through
An Infinite Being there very surely is
To create and share this magnificent beauty
With the likes of just me and you

ALTHEA CHRISTINE MCQUEEN

Under A Rainbow

When I was just a little girl
And rain was whispering down
I thought that mountains all were dressed
In a purple flannel gown.

When I was just a tiny Miss
I thought the stars were glass
And Angels straightened haloes and wings
In their mirrors as they'd pass.

Through fairy rings in the children's park
The whirling carousel
Had enchanted horses that flew to answer
The fairy queen's silver bell.

The bird I knew in childhood
Sang upon a cherry tree
Now all my childhood mornings come
And shine gold suns on me.

Children Escaping Time

Come play with me on the beach! We'll reach
Our tongues to the clean salt breeze
And slide our hands along live hot sands
And shout just as loud as we please.

What fun to be lord of space — to chase
Proud sandpipers off our dune,
Then laughing splash in the joys that flash
Down our spillway of afternoon!

Let us lie and toast in the sun, or run
Bare-footed where seaweed curls —
And drown this thought that no oldsters ought
To go leaping like little girls.

. . . HELEN FAULKNER

Friend

Sitting within a circled stand of eucalyptus trees,
The morning sun, cool,
Gently stirs the eucalyptus pungency.
She, beaming the grace of morning sun,
Filters through the density of leaves,
And flickers sun-spots upon my tired hands.
Friend, friend.

Social Security Check Changes

Residents of the Monterey area who are receiving monthly social security checks are reminded by Oscar L. Donaldson Jr., social security manager, to report directly to the Monterey office any change of address or other events affecting continued receipt of their checks.

Reports may be made by mail, phone or in person.

Appropriate report forms are available at the Monterey office.

This reporting method enables the district office to take advantage of the increased capacity of its high speed communications circuits to transmit information to record centers.

Until recently, social security beneficiaries were encouraged to notify the Social Security Administration about the occurrence of these events by mailing preaddressed postcard forms to a record center.

Events that affect receipt of monthly social security checks, in addition to address changes, are starting or stopping work (employment), marriage or remarriage in some instances, divorce, and death.

Christian Science Radio Program

What causes friction in human relations?

"Getting Along Better with Others" is the title of next Sunday morning's program on the Christian Science radio series "The Bible Speaks to You." It will be broadcast over stations KGO at 7:15, KRML at 7:45 and KDON at 8:45.

Friction in human relations is often caused by selfishness and this program shows how unselfishness, finding love an end in itself and not a means towards a personal goal, eliminates friction.

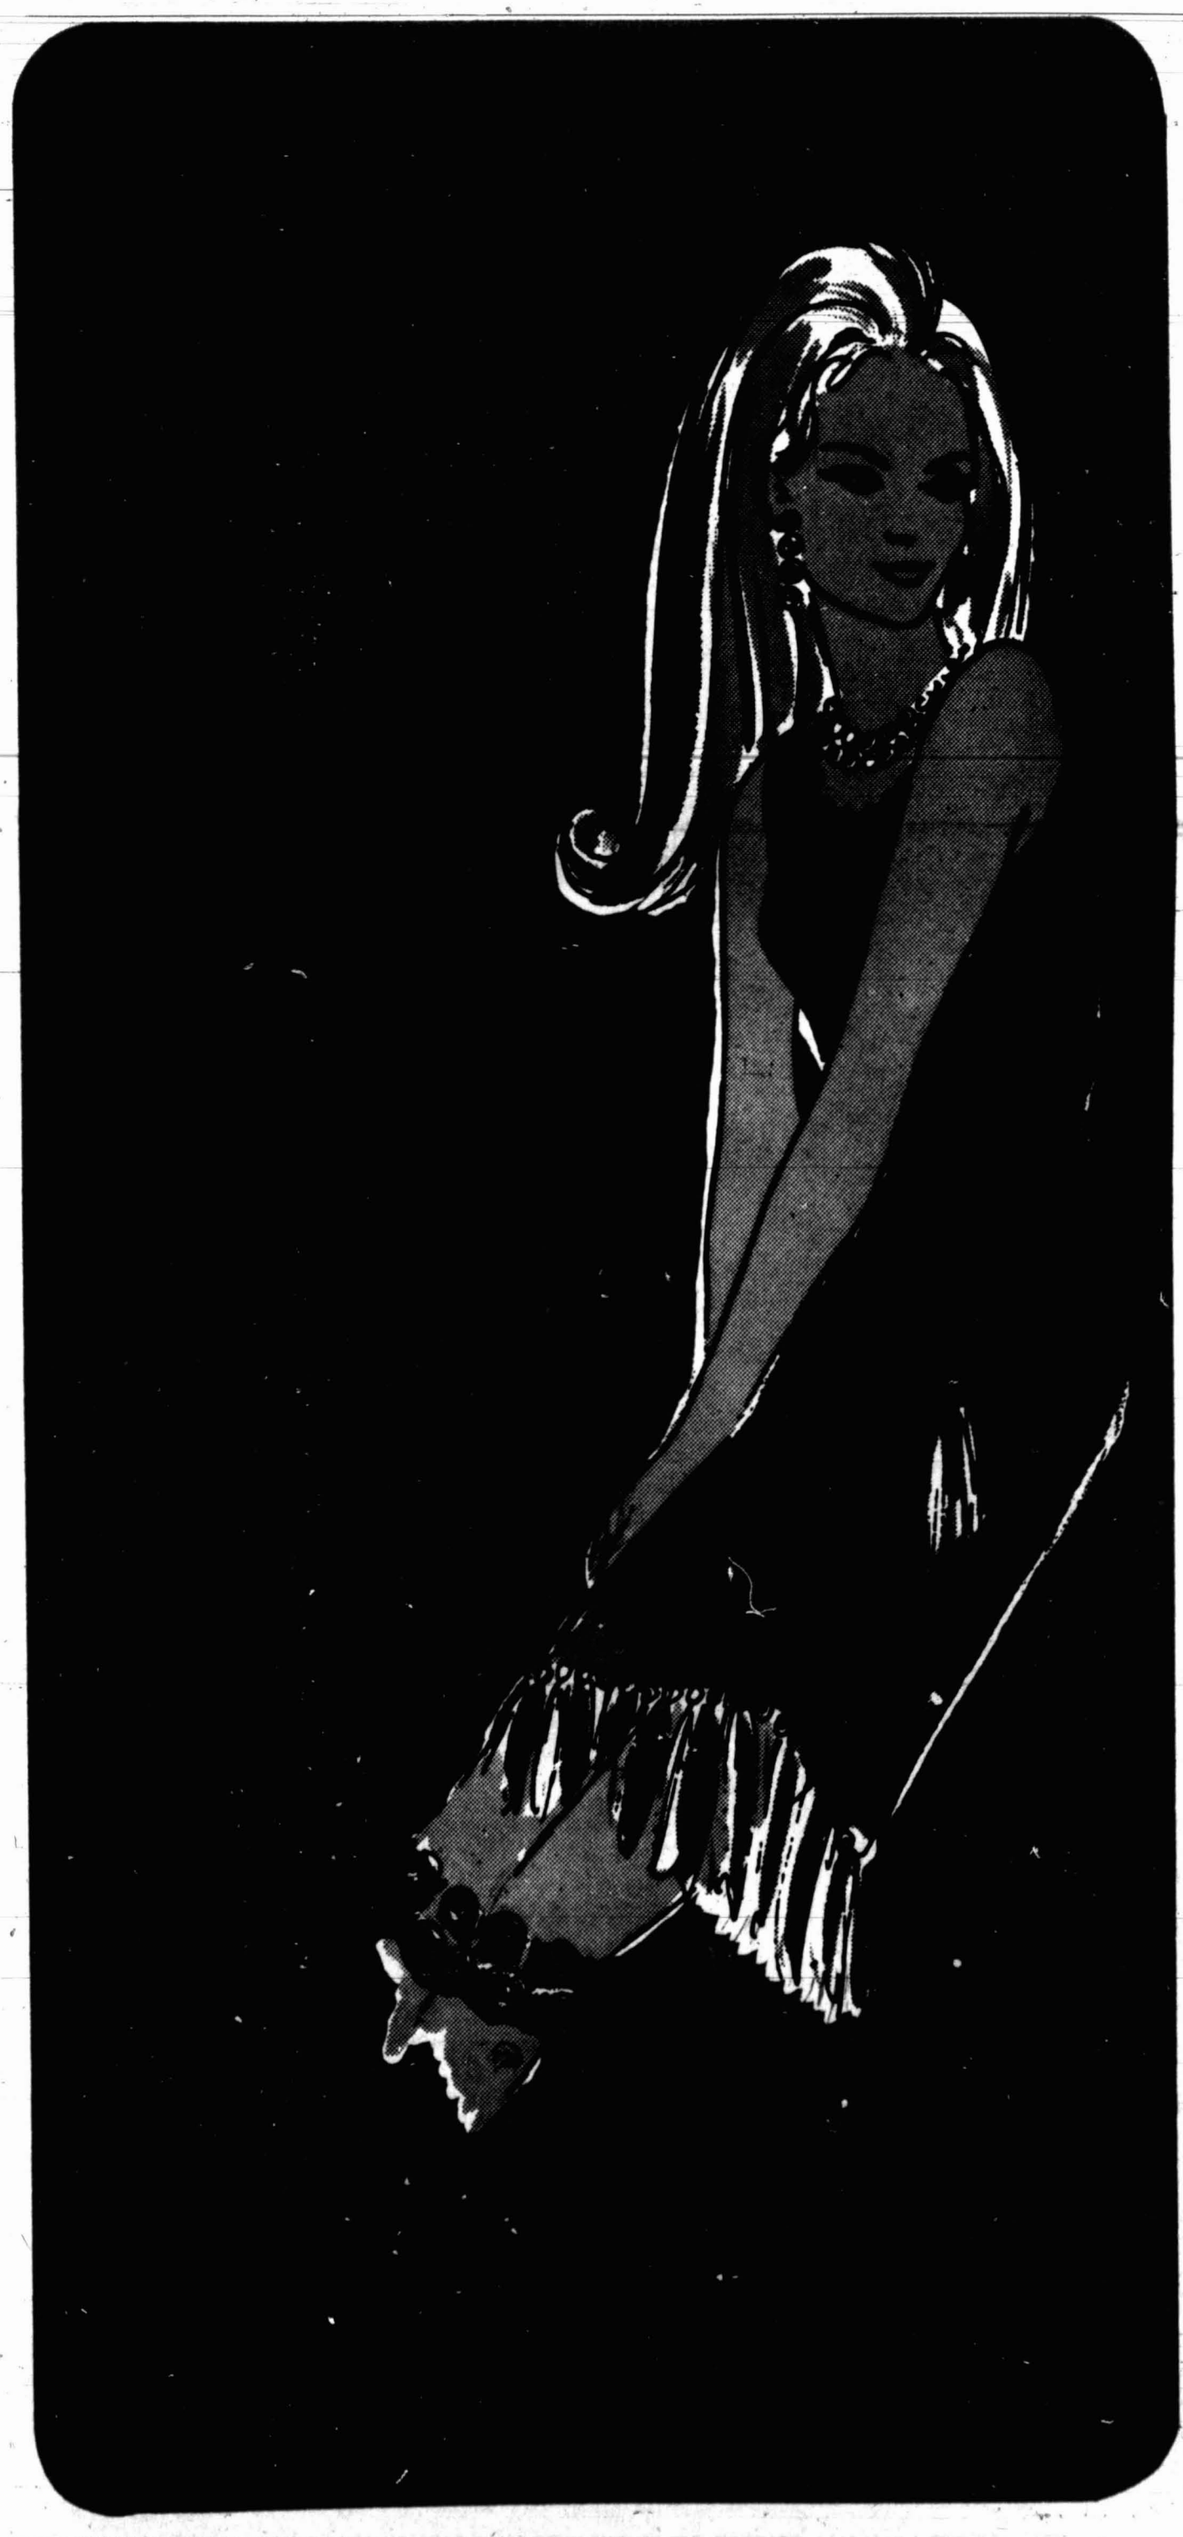
VIETNAM RETURNEE — Michael Cook, a graduate of the Carmel High School Class of 1960, has returned from Vietnam, where he served as a Naval officer. Happy at his return are his wife, Linda and daughter Laura. Now a civilian, Cook and his family reside in Palo Alto, where he will practice architecture, having graduated from the University of California School of Architecture in 1966.



Carmel Teachers and Staff Salaries Raised Four Per Cent

by Margot Hyatt

After several special budget sessions with representatives of the teacher's negotiating council, the last one lasting until after midnight Thursday night, the Carmel Unified School District gave a blanket cost-of-living pay raise of four per cent to its teachers, counselors, administrators and classified employes.

The increase is an addition to scheduled salary raises.

About $40,000 to be cut from the tentative 1968-70 budget may result in increased class loads for teachers. Another $60,000 to be taken from reserves, may weaken the financial position next year.

A raise of seven per cent was requested by the negotiating council by Don Blakeman, vice chairman.

Lewis De Stefano, chairman of the council salary committee, after exhausting other possibilities, suggested a possible override tax, staff reduction or rise in-teacher-student ratio as ways to meet the need for a pay raise.

Board member Dr. Hilton Bialek commented that "We may have to reorganize patterns of education without squeezing the budget each year. We will have to search for innovative ways of teaching. Everyone on the board feels that teachers need to be better paid."

Board member Clayton Neill said "Perhaps differtiated staffing will be the answer; full time, year round teachers and part time teachers."

At the school board meeting Wednesday evening, all tenure and probationary teachers were reemployed and Mrs. Janet Hughes hired to teach business education at the high school. Several classified employees were hired.

A gift from John Gardiner of Gardiner's Tennis Ranch, of a chlorinator and two gate valves for the Carmel Valley Swimming Pool, was accepted with gratitude.

WELL HIDDEN — from Highway 1 and inaccessible to the public, this Pacific Telephone dial office will shortly bring modern-day telephone services to Big Sur subscribers.

Modern Telephone Comes To Big Sur

Big Sur's "magic numbers" on June 21 will begin with the prefix "667," according to Don Peters, PT&T manager at Monterey.

At exactly 11:01 p.m., the Big Sur telephone exchange will become part of the nationwide Direct Distance Dialing (DDD) system.

Now, for the first time, Big Sur subscribers can dial practically any number in the States, Canada and some overseas points as well.

Conversely, Big Sur residents will be able to receive direct-dial calls from anywhere on the DDD network.

A special directory will be delivered to Big Sur customers before cutover, as well as a new number card for their telephone and complete dialing instructions.

Should a customer call the old number after the cutover, the call will be intercepted by a special operator and the new number given. Directory Assistance will also have the new Big Sur numbers by cutover time.

Bringing the latest in telephone service to subscribers of this super-scenic community meant Pacific Telephone had to build a new dial office more sophisticated switching equipment.

Peters said the project, started in February, was completed just last week "at an inconspicuous site west of Highway 1 near the public campground."

In addition to DDD, Peters said Big Sur subscribers will also enjoy customer-dialed Directory Assistance (411), Repair Service (611), and Time Service (797-8900).

Big Sur is part of Area Code 408 and its new telephone system will operate like most systems in California. In fact, Peters said it operates just like Monterey's.

When calling Big Sur from Big Sur, just dial the seven-digit number. To call within 408 Country, (say, San Jose), dial the number "1" followed by the seven digit number. When calling OUT of the 408 area, dial "1," then the Area Code, then the telephone number.

Pay phones have also been changed. To make a local call from Big Sur, insert ten cents, wait for dial tone, then dial the number.

"Reading the instructions now could save a bit of trouble when the new system starts in service," commented Peters.

Cypress Swim Club Tryouts Next Week

The Cypress Swim Club will hold tryouts for new members next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, June 23, 24, and 25, between 5:30 and 6 p.m. at Carmel Valley Community pool on Ford Road.

Swimmers should be between the ages of 8 and 16 and should have passed the Red Cross intermediate swimmers test or its equivalent.

For further information on training program of the award winning AAU synchronized swim team, call Donn Squires at 659-2444 any evening.

PARTY PLANS . . .

by Phyllis Jervey

"The Sardine Factory"

Why did the sardines leave Monterey Bay? There hasn't yet been a definite answer.

Although effort to bring back the bustling days when sardines were gold on Cannery Row seems to be succeeding.

"The Sardine Factory" links itself cleverly with the past. The same building, now a gourmet restaurant, first served as a canteen for the sardine factory workers.

Next, it was turned into a gym where prospective boxing champions were trained. Then this little wooden house became the "Aurora Portuguese-Italian Lodge."

Still later it was the Monterey Fishermen's Sardine Union Hall.

What a difference was the next tenancy! Behold a gay Ballet School! Where is today's bar, the "stage" was elevated. Yesterday's bar (which serves you now) was brought around the Horn over 110 years ago.

The aroma is also different. What once was a witty ditty "Carmel-By-The-Sea, P.G. By Heavens, and Monterey By The Smell," should become an ancient mariner's chant . . . done with nostalgic rhythm in today's tempo.

The trademark of "The Sardine Factory" is an Antipasto-Salad of cut up tiny sardine filets (no doubt imported from Portugal or Italy) dressed with whole capers, chopped hard cooked egg, with a whole mini sardine on top! Surround with shredded lettuce.

If you're preparing this at home . . . will your own "waiter" present each guest with a well-chilled salad fork . . . ceremoniously?

Would husband or boy friend? We're not clairvoyant. It's safe to say . . . "Go to The Sardine Factory on Wave Street in Cannery Row" if you crave this touch of dramatic perfectionism.

Ted Balestreri and Bert Cutino, manager-owners of our Peninsula's "gone-elegant," but old-time fishermen-sardine factory workers' "canteen" atmosphere, have given "Party Plans" just a glimpse of their secret formulae.

Undaunted by the "We never reveal our recipes" statement, we stuck it out. The menu is before us. This is what it says:

Sole Vanessi: Stuffed rolled Filet of Sole, baked in a rich shrimp sauce, topped with grated Swiss Cheese. Rice Pilaf.

Scampi Regina: Large Shrimp and Prosciutto, seasoned with Fines Herbes, baked in cheese sauce. Rice Pilaf.

Turbot: A baked dish of stuffed White Fish (fresh local catch of halibut) filleted with fresh chopped spinach in mornay sauce. Rice Pilaf.

Sand Dabs (Monterey Bay's Own, Caught Daily . . . saute menuniere.)

Sole (Fresh fillet of Monterey Sole, saute au Sherry).

Halibut (Fresh local white fish, broiled or grilled.)

Salmon (Broiled or Grilled to one's taste . . . in season only.)

We're happy to say that the management doesn't serve fish that hasn't just come in from Monterey Bay. They don't even have a deep freeze at The Sardine Factory.

"If the fish isn't freshly caught, we don't serve it . . ." insists the kitchen manager, Bert Cutino. He shares the cooking with his "First Cabin" chef Robert Ellis whose culinary experience includes a tour at the now-gone Astor Hotel on New York's Times Square. And what marvelous meals we've had there!

Meaning it was ARMY headquarters for West Point weekenders.

Dinners, at the "S. F." include a Relish Dish . . . Soup of the Day or Abalone Chowder. Tossed Green Salad with choice of dressing, Potato or Rice Pilaf, Sardine Loaf Bread and Butter, Coffee.

Which brings up a direct question we asked Bert Cutino. "Do you use POP ERNST'S recipe for Abalone Chowder?" Answer:

"You know that POP was the originator of A.C.?"

"Yes, (your reporter replied), during the days when the U.S. Cavalry was stationed at the Presidio."

Bert explained that he had been a bus boy at POP ERNST'S.

Nobody admitted anything more.

However, here is an Abalone Chowder (which can also be done with Pismo Clams) that is almost like Pop's, if memory serves us right. By "us" Phyllis means hers, not Bert's.

Very Good Clam Chowder

One stalk celery; 1 leek, white part; 1 green pepper; ½ onion, all chopped; 1 small can evaporated milk; ¾ cup water; 1 peeled potato, cubed; 2 slices diced salt pork; ¼ cup flour or less; 3 slices abalone (½ lb.); parsley, thyme, white pepper and salt to taste.

Start abalone in cold water and remove when water comes to a boil. Braise vegetables with salt pork; sprinkle with flour. Add abalone broth gradually; simmer 25 minutes, stirring to make a smooth sauce. Grind abalone and add to chowder.

Stage Review

Me and Thee — Final weekend at the Circle Theater for this rolling-in-the aisles comedy about a New York couple and their attempt to understand, not necessarily in order — their hippie son; a psychiatrist's analysis of his problems; the psychiatrist's uninvited analysis of their problems; a Greenwich Village girl who's bad when she's sober, but oh so prim and proper when she's gassed, and finally a heartily pugnacious, karate chopping, judo throwing meter maid who want's the couple to move their illegally parked car, illegally parked through out the play. The play closes Sunday evening, and "Sweet Charity" opens next Friday, June 26. Make reservations by calling 624-2669.

Born Yesterday — Also the final two days for this hilarious comedy. Closes Saturday evening, and "Ernest In Love" opens on Thursday, June 26. "Born Yesterday" ran four years on Broadway with the late Judy Holiday in the role of Billie, the dumb blonde, which established Miss Holiday as a top star. The cast of the play at the Studio makes you forget "Born Yesterday" as a vehicle for Judy Holiday, and with superb skill and deft comedy, makes you laugh when you are supposed to laugh, snigger when you are supposed to snigger, and in every way, provides an enjoyable evening of hilarity. For reservations, 624-1661.

'Ernest In Love' Next Musical Stage Farce At Studio Theater-Restaurant

"Ernest In Love," the musical version of Oscar Wilde's "The Importance Of Being Earnest," starts the summer season at the Studio Theater-Restaurant in Carmel on Thursday, June 26.

To the supreme witty original dialogue, author Anne Croswell and composer Lee Pockriss have added a dozen sparkling songs that give a new dimension to an old favorite.

The well-known plot concerns two Victorian dandies, Jack and Algernon, who must each be christened Ernest in order to wed Gwendolen and Cecily.

The imperious Lady Bracknell is another obstacle to true love until Miss Prism and the Reverend Chasuble supply the vital information that speeds a happy ending.

In the musical adaptation, the two manservants, Lane and Perkins, and the two maids, Alice and Effie, round out the cast.

Enhancing the sly humor of the lines are songs like "A Wicked Man," "You Can't Make Love," and the show-stopper duet between Jack and Lady Bracknell, "A Handbag Is Not A Proper Mother."

When "Ernest In Love" opened its successful off-Broadway run to glowing reviews nine years ago, New York Times critic Brooks Atkinson called the book and lyrics clever and the music "deft and droll," while Judith Crist credited it with "all the charm and pleasure of a spring bouquet."

Under the direction of Charles Thomas, "Ernest In Love" will play at the Studio nightly except Monday and Tuesday from June 26 through August 2. Reservations for dinner and show or show alone for all performances may be made at 624-1661 or 624-2321.

'Sweet Charity' and 'Walter Mitty' Summer Program for Circle Players

A summer season of musical theater has been planned by the Community Theater of the Monterey Peninsula.

"Sweet Charity" is the opening show to be played at the Circle Theater, with the opening performance to be given June 27.

"Sweet Charity" is a tender, poignant and consistently funny look at the adventures, or rather the misadvanture, in the ways of love encountered by the gullible and guileless lady known as Charity Hope Valentine, the "lady of the evening" who always gives her heart, and her earnings to the wrong man.

Charity sings, dances, laughs and cries her way through romances with the "animal magnetism" hero, the "ultra-chic" continental hero, and lastly, the "impossible - to - believe - but - he's - better - than - nothing" type hero.

"Sweet Charity" is a musical in every sense of the word. Cy Coleman has captured the rhythms and sounds and Dorothy Fields the vernacular and fun of present day New York. It's a comedy in every sense of the word.

Neil Simon, author of such monumental comedy hits as "Barefoot In The Park" and "The Odd Couple," has a particular talent for looking at the truly amusing side of life. It's a dancing show, too, wtih exciting dramatic new dances being created by well known choreographer Dale Leflier.

Director Zelma Weinfield is polishing up the final rehearsals in preparation for the opening night, with Tom Fordham her music director.

"Sweet Charity" will play Wednesdays through Sundays, alternating weekly through Labor Day with "The Secret Life of Walter Mitty," which is scheduled to open July 11th.

Reservations and group discount bookings may be made by calling the theater box office at 624-2669.

Rockhounds Meet

Cleopatra's jewelry included stones from Persia and Sweetholm, Oregon.

The Thunderbird symbol of the Hopi Indians actually originated with early Phoenicians.

Rock carvings (petroglyphs) in Arizona characteristicly match those found in Ireland and Egypt.

Hundreds of miles of 40-foot wide ancient roadways, covered over by jungle in South America, have been discovered. Their origin and engineering conform to those of the early Egyptians and King Solomon's time.

King Solomon used the same system for making steel which we now call the Bessemer Process supposedly invented in the 1800s.

These and many other startling stories were related by archaeologist George Staples at the June 6 meeting of the Carmel Valley Gem and Mineral Society in Brey Hall.

"Rock hounds" are appreciative of the durable beauty and history of man and nature they can discover and reveal in rocks and stones.

"THE DEL MONTE GALLERIES REVISITED"
An exhibit investigating the first western art gallery concerned exclusively with California painters and photographers.

Variety Is Keynote To Carmel Art Association Galleries for Summer

by Louise Cook

Exploring the several galleries of the Carmel Art Association is always an adventure.

The infinite variety of style, approach, execution and subject matter never ceases to amaze.

In the Main Gallery, Ellwood Graham fills "Hyperbole II" with 49 squares of imaginative doodles. In "Vase With Laurel," Marlinde von Ruhs suggests flowers and foliage in the rich colors of a Gobelin tapestry.

Helen Dooley constructs her "Cathedral" with violent primary colors plus the feeling of solid yet soaring structure. Buddhist monks, clad in bright yellow robes, take their "Afternoon Tea" in the intense green leafy depths of Thailand. This is one of Joe Feuerborn's memories of that country.

Clarence Bates captures the clarified greens, blues and yellows of sky, mountains and flowers washed by recent rain in "Spring in the Valley."

In the Beardsley Room Sam Harris creates "Venus Birth," an airy goddess floating in limpid clouds of color.

Seavey Appointed To Art Committee

Kent L. Seavey, curator of the Carmel Museum of Art has been appointed to serve on the advisory committee for the financial institutions small space touring fine arts program of the California Arts Commission.

Seavey will be serving with William Gravesmill, curator of education of the M.H. de Young Memorial Museum in San Francisco; Gerald Nordland, director of the San Francisco Museum of Art; Ben Johnson of the Los Angeles County Museum of Art; Paul Mills, director of the Oakland Art Museum, and Kenneth Ross, head of the Department of Municipal Arts of Los Angeles.

Dr. F. M. Hinkhouse of San Francisco is acting as guest curator for the pilot exhibition, "California Paintings, Past and Present" which will tour California for a year beginning this fall, visiting the statewide branches of the United California Bank.

Seavey is enthused about his invitation to join the advisory group of what he considers one of the most innovative art projects in the nation.

'Fairy Queen' At Bach Festival

"The Fairy Queen," an adaptation of Shakespeare's "A Midsummer Night's Dream" by Henry Purcell, will be presented Tuesday, July 22 at 8:30 in Sunset Auditorium as a highlight of the Carmel Bach Festival's 32nd annual summer season.

All ingredients which make for romantically exciting musical theatre will be presenting in this production. This "first" for the Bach Festival will be under the musical direction of Sandor Salgo with Charles Thomas of Carmel, stage director.

Soloists, chorus, dancers, actors and orchestra are involved in this production so characteristic of the 17th century English theater in which music and drama are combined, yet remain separate.

Among those participating in this performance will be vocal soloists Carole Bogard, Carole Burch, Larry Jarvis, Douglas Lawrence and James Schwabacher, all of whom have received acclaim from critics and audiences during past Carmel seasons.

Also singing will be Joanna Simon of the New York City Opera and Leo Goeke, who made his debut last year with the New York City Opera and Little Orchestra Society.

Purcell, outstanding English composer of the 17th century, had wide experience writing music for the theater and his technical command is matched in this masterpiece by the full range of his creative genius.

Despite the dramatic portion being a 17th century adaptation of the familiar Shakespeare play, Purcell did not set a single line of the original text. His music for "The Fairy Queen" consists of more than fifty numbers and contains a dazzling variety of forms and styles.

Single tickets for this unusual attraction are available at the Bach Festival box office in room 3 of the Sunset Center in Carmel.

Ticket information for the entire festival may be obtained by writing to the Bach Festival, Box 503, Carmel 93921 and enclosing a stamped self-addressed envelope.

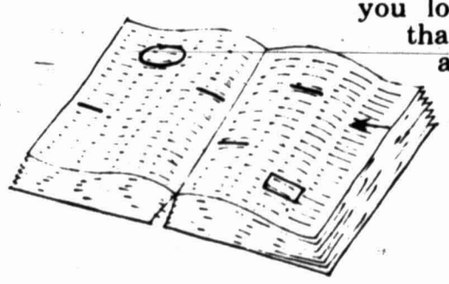
What's doing?

I know you'll want to put tomorrow's telephone into your home when you see it. The sleek new Trimline® telephones fit in most anywhere. The streamlined receiver rests comfortably in the palm of your hand. The lighted dial is built right into it, with a handy recall button—so you can dial one call after another without reaching back to hang up. You have a choice of wall or desk models in a range of colors.

Like more information about the Trimline phone? Just call the girl that has the answers to all your questions about telephone service: your Service Representative, at the Monterey Business Office (375-1511). She can arrange Trimline installations for you, too.

You know, one book you can mark up 'til your heart's content is your telephone book. Next time you look up a number that you'll be wanting again, check or underline it. It'll be a lot easier to find the next time.



I am pleased to announce that on June 22 residents of the Monterey Peninsula will be able to dial residents of Big Sur directly. The old community dial office has been replaced, and with the aid of a new switching machine it will no longer be necessary to place calls through the operator.

Due to the central office change, each customer in Big Sur has received a new telephone number. Should you need the number, it will be available by dialing Directory Assistance (411).

Big Sur customers will, for the first time, enjoy modern dial services such as Direct Distance Dialing and Directory Assistance. It will no longer be necessary for calls to or from Big Sur to go through the operator.

Caribbean Islands Good Vacation Buys

Although originally discovered by Christopher Columbus in 1493, Antigua today is being discovered by another kind of adventurer — the vacationer.

Visitors like Antigua because its size (108 square miles) means that nothing is ever very far away. In fact, the greatest distance in a straight line that can be traveled on Antigua is just 18 miles!

The terrain is gentle and rolling, without the precipitous mountains which characterize many of the islands to the south. The coastline is punctured by dozens of small bays, almost all of them lined with powdery white sand beaches which shelve off gently.

The arriving air traveler gets a breath-taking view of the waters surrounding Antigua which shade from the palest turquoise at the shoreline to the deepest azure of the ocean.

Antigua is blessed with a climate which is just about perfect. Rain is rare and usually consists of a brief shower when it does come. The temperature is constant because of the trade winds' natural air conditioning.

Highlight of any visit to Antigua is a tour of Nelson's Dockyard at English Harbour. This secure anchorage is so well protected that it is almost impossible to find from the sea without prior knowledge of its whereabouts.

Admiral Nelson hid his fleet here and it was from English Harbour that he began the sea voyage which eventually led him to Trafalgar where he became Britain's greatest naval hero. The Dockyard has been restored and there are 14 colonial-style naval buildings which again appear as they were in Nelson's own time.

The Admiral's house has been turned into a museum with many 18th Century exhibits and records on display. Capstan House is interesting for the mechanism used to haul ships sternward into the wharf. Under the Naval Officers' Quarters are the enormous cisterns for storing the precious rainfall.

Restoration by the Friends of English Harbour began in 1961. The Dockyard today still serves as a busy anchorage for one of the largest charter fleets in the Caribbean.

A part of the history of the old Dockyard is vividly re-created in the twice weekly performance of Son et Lumiere.

Nearby is Clarence House, first occupied by HRH Prince William, Duke of Clarence, who later became King William IV, known as the Sailor King. He lived there at the age of 22, when he was in command of HMS Pegasus. On the bluffs at the mouth of English Harbour are ruins of forts, barracks and a military cemetery.

Antigua has many beautiful coral reefs for snorkeling and scuba diving. In past years these reefs trapped many unwary vessels, making diving for sunken treasure on the wrecks a popular past-time, particularly off the nearby island of Barbuda. Barbuda also boasts two deer hunting seasons.

The capital city of St. John's is small but growing and bustling with activity. There are a number of shops and boutiques featuring Caribbean crafts for the benefit of visiting shoppers.

Motivation for Parents

Parents are sometimes motivated to give up smoking cigarettes to be a good example to their children.

In other cases, youngsters can be an example for grownups.

The Central Mission Trails Heart Association has a leaflet called "What To Tell Your Parents About Smoking," for young people who wish their parents would give up the cigarette habit.

Actually, the leaflet is likely to be interesting to anyone — young or old — who asks for it by writing to the Heart office, 541-A South Main Street, Salinas. 93901.

Market Comments

Dow Theory Business and Stock Market Forecasts Letter dated June 13, states "With the industrial average dropping below its February low of 899.80, thus confirming the earlier action of the rail average, the market this week gave a Dow Theory bear market signal; further declines of unknown length and intensity are ahead, in our opinion."

Cubbison To Attend Alcohol Symposium

Gordon Cubbison, a director of the National Council on Alcoholism in the Monterey Peninsula area, has been awarded a scholarship to the week-long University of Utah School of Alcohol Studies.

Mrs. Mary Clark Ross, Carmel, executive director of the local NCA affiliate, stated that the scholarship is provided jointly by the Christopher D. Smithers Foundation of New York and the Kenneth S. Walker Scholarship Fund.

A Carmel Point resident and investment account executive, Cubbison for several years has been active in presenting information on alcoholism to military, youth and civic groups. At the Utah seminar, he will specialize in programs for employees, planned for representatives of business, labor and government.

The Utah course annually assembles outstanding authorities representing the professions and disciplines involved with alcoholism to present scientific information relative to its nature, prevention and therapy.

Cannonball Adderly Set for 12th Annual Monterey Jazz Festival

The Cannonball Adderly Quintet has been signed to perform at the 12th Annual Monterey Jazz Festival, scheduled for Sept. 19, 20 and 21, according to Jimmy Lyons, festival general manager.

The Monterey Jazz Festival is held in the 7000-seat outdoor arena on the Monterey County Fairgrounds. It consists of five concerts, Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings, and Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

The Adderly Quintet, led by its alto saxophone star, Julian "Canonball" Adderly and featuring his brother Nat Adderly on cornet, will perform during the Festival's Sunday evening concert, Sept. 21.

General manager Lyons also announced that individual members of the Adderly group will perform in other musical contexts during the Festival weekend.

Other members of the Quintet are oJe Zawinul, piano; Victor Gaskin, bass, and Roy McCurdy, drums.

Other jazz artists for the Sunday evening festival concert as well as for the other concerts will be announced soon.

The Cannonball Adderly Quintet has a widespread following, including pop, rhythm and blues, and jazz fans.

"Cannonball' and Nat were part of a musical family in Florida. Their father at one time had been a well-known jazz cornetist.

Following graduation from college, "Cannonball" turned to teaching. Although he worked in jazz clubs while teaching, he soon dropped this dual role and headed for New York. There he became a featured alto saxophone soloist, and formed a group of his own. Later he joined the famous Miles Davis Sextet, and stayed with the group until 1959 when he reformed his own group, and his brother Nat joined him as featured soloist.

Season tickets for the Monterey Jazz Festival are on sale now at less than box office prices.

Season tickets may be ordered by mail from the Monterey Jazz Festival, P. O. Box JAZZ, Monterey 93940.

A TRIFLE OUTSIDE — Perry Lang charges to the right of the plate to stop a wide pitch during one of the exciting Little League games at the diamonds just below the Carmel Mission. Senior Little League has just started. The umpire is Howard McFann.

RELAY TO HOME PLATE — Baseball is a game of intensity and concentration, whether major league or Little League. Both are reflected on the face of Sinclair Thomas who has just fielded a fly ball and is throwing to his relay man to cut off a run at home plate.

FULLY EQUIPPED — Clad in standard asbestos protective clothing, these Carmel High School students learn the use of nozzle sprays, chemicals, water and other techniques on a practice fire at the Monterey Naval Auxiliary Landing Field. The Navy officer in the foreground is unidentified.

Unique Carmel High School Class Learns Fire Fighting Techniques

A unique class at Carmel High School teaches students a rare skill — how to cope with fire.

Under the direction of Paul Artellan, an engineer in Carmel Fire Department, the class of 28 (including one girl) received instruction in many aspects of fire fighting, fire control, fire prevention and first aid.

Artellan drew up the curriculum for the unique class, using the standard Fire Service Text designed for regular fire service instruction, and on-the-job experience, along with films and demonstrations.

Detailed instruction included the use of extinguishers, both chemical and water, and the employment of fog spray and special nozzles.

During the semester, the class visited fire departments in Carmel, Carmel Valley, Pacific Grove and Monterey to see demonstrations of equipment unique to those stations.

The primary reason for the success of the class, which already has an enrollment of 40 for the next school year beginning in September, is the unbounded enthusiasm of Paul Artellan.

"We're not trying to make firemen out of the class," he says. "What we are trying to do is provide interesting subject matter within the framework of knowledge that may be helpful to the student.

"Of course, if the course impels a student to become a fireman, so much the better," he says.

"So far, seven members of the class have signed up to work for the summer with the Division of Forestry at Monterey and San Benito County stations and two have joined the U. S. Forest Service.

Artellan gives considerable credit for the success of the program to his own chief, J. R. Belvail of the Carmel Fire Department, to the personnel of the Naval Air Auxiliary Landing Field in Monterey, where the class did much of its practical work, and to Carmel High School personnel who provided so much assistance and encouragement.

Some of the students who are juniors in the high school this year will be enrolled in an advance course next year, while a beginner's course will be offered again in September.

Librarian's Notebook

By Ruth Galvin Thornburg, City Librarian

One of the most popular books in recent years, and one of the most charming, was a book about sea otters.

Comes now a book entitled The World of the Walrus written by Richard Perry.

The Vikings called the walrus the whale-horse and hunted him without mercy, but today the walrus is under the protection of various conservation groups, although still hunted by the Eskimos.

Since the walrus is hardly as loveable or as pettable as the otter, this book will not have popular appeal, but it should be called to your attention as an interesting piece of writing.

Speaking of things pettable, we have the new book by Kathleen Szasz which is called Petishism, Pets and Their People In the Western World.

This is a horrific book. In terse plain-speaking style, the author recounts hundreds of true stories of people whose lives were completely wrapped about their pets, or other true stories of people who abused and even killed animals in relieving their own neurotic hang-ups.

The book will explain for you the persons you have known who lived with twenty or thirty cats or dogs . . . and smelled like it, too.

For the small child who is a bit retarded, there is a new book by Alfred Schmidt, which is called Craft Projects For the Slow Learner.

This is a large book with many pictures and diagrams, for the parent or teacher who is trying to encourage a slow learning child to express himself.

Prentice-Hall is bringing out a series of books under the general title Great Lives Observed, and the format is that of a compilation of writings by persons who were actually there to see what was going on.

We have one of this series on Hitler which was edited by George Stein. The book is most interesting because the make-up gives it an immediacy and an impact mere recounting might not have.

Part three in the book is called "Hitler In History" and is composed of several short chapters each by a different author, who assess and tries to explain Hitler's place in the history of the World.

Did you ever read a book about insane people which led you eventually to begin to doubt your own sanity? Such a book is The Girl In Melanie Klein a new novel by Ronald Harwood.

The scene is a mental hospital near London and the characters are all inmates of the hospital, which is a comfortable place called The Nest.

When a new patient named Niobe is admitted the rest of the patients decide she really doesn't belong with their group and decide to get rid of her. The result is a pleasant, slightly mad novel which will amuse you for an evening.

Christian Science Bible Lesson

"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" is the subject of this week's Bible lesson-sermon which will be heard Sunday in all Christian Science churches.

In the Responsive Reading, taken from Job, one verse asks: "Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth?"

A correlative passage from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy reads: "The universe, like man, is to be interpreted by Science from its divine Principle, God, and then it can be understood; but when explained on the basis of physical sense and represented as subject to growth, maturity, and decay, the universe, like man, is, and must continue to be, an enigma."

Tarot Authority In Four Talks

Dr. J. Allen Gilbert, authority on the Tarot, will give a series of lectures, beginning Saturday, June 21, at the La Playa Hotel in Carmel, on the secret wisdom of initiates of ancient Egypt and Israel as symbolized in the Greater Arcana of the Tarot cards.

The lectures will be four in number, all on Saturdays: June 21, July 19, August 30, and the final lecture in September.

Attendance is limited to 21 persons. Each lecture will be divided into two sections for instruction and discussion.

Dr. Gilbert is Director of the Altora Academy of Soul Culture and the Creative Law in San Francisco, specializing in the deeper meanings of the Tarot symbolism and allied occult subjects.

Needed for the course as reference material are: "The Tarot of the Bohemians" by Papus, (Gerard Secausse), and a pack of Tarot cards reprinted from the historic Marseilles pack. Both may be obtained from the Wayfarer's Book Shop, Carmel.

The cost of the course is nominal.

Dr. Gilbert accepts no fee for his lectures, but will accept the costs of his four week-end trips to Carmel. These costs will be shared equally among those attending the lectures.

Mrs. Gilbert will register and accept fees, on Saturday, June 21, at 9:30 a.m. at the hotel before the first lecture in the series.

For further information phone 372-9365.

Book Fair At All Saints' July 10

The annual book fair of All Saints' Church will be held Thursday, July 10, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Parish Hall.

This popular event for book lovers and collectors will have as its theme the California Bicentennial.

California posters and pictures will be displayed, and there will be a special table of Californian books and prints for sale.

There will be also the usual offerings of books in all categories, records, music, prints, collectors' magazines, and book accessories.

Donations of any of these items may be taken to the parish office or call 372-9267 or 372-7248 for pick-up service or assistance.

Co-chairmen of the fair are Mrs. Donald Taugher and Mrs. Alfred Cooper.

OBITUARY

Judge James Merwin McDonnell, 63, who retired from the Sacramento Municipal Court in 1966 after serving 27 years, died June 9. He was a member of the Shriners in Sacramento, the Monterey Peninsula Country Club, and the Monterey Peninsula Airmen's Association. He is survived by his widow, Mary J. McDonnell of Carmel; a daughter, Mary Ellen McDonnell of San Francisco; and two sons, James M. Jr. of Carmel and Thomas J. Stanford University.

Realty Values

Now is the time to buy a lot and build a home?

The national average for land costs has risen 180 percent since 1950. Land is becoming more scarce. Building trades wages, according to the Labor Department, are up 50 percent over the past 10 years.

PARTY PLANS

Correct seasoning by adding thyme, pepper and salt to taste. Garnish with chopped fresh parsley. Serves 4.

Serve hot into large polished abalone shells with plugged holes. These can be purchased at Monterey's Old Fisherman's Wharf.

On display at The Sardine Factory's Bar is this authentic Menu: Coffee, no charge; milk, cake, pie, sandwiches, each 10 cents; doughnuts, 6 cents; chili beans, 15 cents; stew 20 cents; soup or fresh fruit, 10 cents, each.

"This is our understanding that these prices are in line with those of other industrial canteens." Signed by The Monterey Canneries (Sea Pride Packing Sea Co.).

The Sardine Factory also serves today's luxuries at today's prices. Bert and Bob create their own dishes and their continental cuisine has authority. Steaks, Chicken, Cannelloni, Sweetbreads. . . . Brochettes and Tournedos are Cognac Flambe. So this modern "sardine factory" is very cosmopolitan.

For nostalgic old timers the atmosphere is still there, minus that special sardine smell! In front is an old fishing "seiner" type boat . . . circa 1906. It was sunk 3 times in Monterey Bay and now that its last sail has been put up, it will never fish again.

The walls are lined with old photographs of Monterey's fisher folk and luminaries. At the Maitre's desk is an original factory "punch in and out" time clock.

And now its time for Party Plans to sign off.

SOCIAL SECURITY AND YOU

by Raymond MacDonald

Q. I have several cysts which my doctor says he will remove at any time. Is this covered by Medicare since it isn't a matter of immediate surgery?

A. This is considered elective surgery and unless it is for cosmetic purposes, it is definitely a benefit of Medicare. One of the rewarding features of Medicare is the improved health of our older citizens because elective surgery often corrects conditions before they become critical.

Q. My application for disability was denied and the letter said I must wait 6 months before I apply again. Why is this?

A. You misunderstood the letter. Whenever a disability claim is turned down, the Social Security Administration advises the claimant of his right to appeal to have his application reconsidered. The time limit for filing a reconsideration is 6 months from the date a claim is turned down.

Q. My claim for disability was turned down because I needed one more year of work under Social Security. May I pay in the difference?

A. No. A person must have at least 5 years of work during the past 10 years just before becoming disabled. There is no way to pay the Social Security contributions for work not actually done.

Q. My wife passed away Jan. 13, 1968, and I am wondering if I am entitled to any of her Social Security benefits that she has paid into for a number of years.

A. You may be entitled to at least a lump-sum death payment based on your deceased wife's Social Security record. There is a time limit of two years within which a claim may be filed for such a payment. You should visit your nearest Social Security office before the second anniversary of her death and take her Social Security card with you.

Q. I am a 60-year old, unemployed widow. Can I get Social Security benefits based on my own earning record?

A. No. You have to be 62 to qualify for retirement benefits on your own earnings record. If your husband has worked under Social Security long enough to be insured, you may qualify for a reduced widow's benefit at age 60.

Q. I may need emergency hospitalization at any time, because of a heart condition. I have lost my health insurance card and have asked my Social Security office for a new one. What will happen if I am hospitalized before I get the new card?

A. First, don't worry about it! If you do have to go to the hospital before you get your new card, the hospital will simply ask the Social Security office to verify your hospital insurance coverage and furnish your correct health insurance claim number. The hospital will need to know what protection you have under Medicare and when it began.

(Mail your questions to Social Security, c/o Carmel Pine Cone, Carmel, or phone Social Security office 373-3351).

Music Scholarships

Fifteen high school and college students, one from Carmel High School, have won music scholarships or grants for use in the fall semester at Monterey Peninsula College, according to an announcement made today by Dr. Harvel Marshall, MPC music department chairman.

Four vocal scholarships, each paying $50, were funded by proceeds from the "Opera Gala," a benefit program staged at the college in April. Auditions were held June 3.

Local scholarship winner was Nicolette Hariri of Carmel High School.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Dora V. McCarthy, 70, Carmel resident since 1931, died June 5. Native of Mukilteo, Washington, she and Dr. Joseph B. McCarthy lived at Randall Way and Allen Place.

She was a former member of the Carmel Woman's Club and the Carmel Red Cross.

Their daughter, Mrs. Nancy M. Close, lives in Hungerford Berks, England.

Those wishing to honor her memory may contribute to the Community Hospital Building Fund, Box HH, Carmel.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Rosella M. Miller, 80, who came to Carmel in 1926 with her husband, Edward Miller, died June 15. Her husband died in 1958. Native of Kansas, she leaves two sons, William T. Adams of Carmel, Samuel M. Adams of White Rock; a daughter, Esther of Seattle, numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

ROMANTIC, TRADITIONAL HOMES

Carmel, $47,500

A true Mediterranean story-and-a-half with Spanish tile roof, balcony, arched windows. Guest house or shop off patio in the same architecture. 3 bedrooms, 2 baths. Carpets, drapes, appliances all included. Your self-expression can glorify it!

Carmel, $49,500

Our Barbara says this is "a real Shakespearean castle in miniature except where fort art thou?" We might fire her for that if she hadn't listed this perfectly delightful private world of handsome architecture (a true Norman tower entry), charming gardens and interesting room arrangement. 4 bedrooms, 3 baths, and only a couple of blocks from Carmel High. Convenient to Everything. We think it's such a good value we have selected it as our June Home of the Month.

Carmel, $59,000

A 6% loan can be assumed and there's an extra lot — perfect Father's Day appeal! To please HER romantic instincts, this home has a magnificient living room just crying for chamber music and paintings and the whole renaissance bit. Lovely, huge upstairs master bedroom, modernized kitchen, gracious size dining room and only a few blocks from Sunset Cultural Center. And don't forget the extra lot, and the 6% assumable loan!

Carmel Highlands, $79,500

Old World fascination in the heart of the Highlands on over 2 acres for permanent peace in your own forest, with a fairy tale ocean view. Built by an opera star a long time ago, it has had some updating, but so much could be done. Seems to us the land alone is worth the price. Interesting, challenging home.

Carmel Highlands, $225,000

Handsome hacienda by the sea, a big, rambling stone house with a library-den wing perfect enough to preserve under glass, and very suitable for use as a completely separate apartment. There are SEVEN fireplaces, wine fountains in the dining room, marvelous kitchen, many bedrooms and baths, enormous living room with a 54-paned window. Then there's the incomparable extra: your own key and a deeded path to Point Lobos. You couldn't afford to build it now even supposing you were lucky enough to find craftsmen who Know How. Our great pleasure to show it to you.

HAPPINESS Is Living and Working in that "Secret Garden" of Herb Caen's . . . Carmel Valley Village. (It should really read "Secret SUNSHINE Garden").
